For locations, check out our handy maps on pages 63-68.

CITY CENTRE
Home to the iconic Belfast City Hall, St George’s Market and the main shopping district. You’ll be spoilt for choice with the abundance of cool cafés, great pubs, trendy bars and an amazing restaurant scene. Start off in the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre (opposite City Hall) to pick up information, book tours and find out everything to make the most of your visit.

CATHEDRAL QUARTER
Packed full of fascinating architecture, buzzing beer gardens, trendy warehouse restaurants, cobbled streets, and colourful street art, this area of town contrasts the old with the new, with St. Anne’s Square, home to the Metropolitan Arts Centre (MAC) and a piazza of welcoming eateries, alongside some of the oldest streets in Belfast.

LINEN QUARTER
Belfast was once nicknamed “Linenopolis” as it was the world leader in the production of linen in the 19th Century. Just south of City Hall, you can enjoy the architecture of the old linen mills which house a mix of offices, chic bars and renowned restaurants. This is a great part of town to enjoy dinner and drinks.

TITANIC QUARTER
Steeped in memories of a bygone era, the Titanic Quarter is now a fun and energetic urban waterfront development. Visit or take a tour of the many historic and state-of-the-art Titanic visitor attractions, or simply stroll around the Maritime Mile to learn more about the city’s shipbuilding heritage.

QUEEN’S QUARTER
The area around Queen’s University is a treasure trove of eclectic shops, boutiques, cafés, bars and art galleries. Visit the collections of the Ulster Museum, stroll around Botanic Gardens. The neighbouring Lisburn Road offers designer shopping, cafés, artisan delis, salons and wine bars.

GAELTACHT QUARTER
The centre for Irish language, music and culture is in the west of the city. An Cultúrann showcases cultural Irish Gaelic traditions and contains a restaurant, gift shop, theatre and gallery. Explore the stunning Clonard Monastery or enjoy the 3 mile Divis Summit Trail, a specifically designed loop walk on Divis Mountain with spectacular views over Belfast.

EAST SIDE
EastSide was once the beating heart of the city’s industrial past with thousands of people employed in linen mills, rope factories, engineering works and shipyards. EastSide is now thriving once again but this time as a hub of culture and creativity. Make the EastSide Visitor Centre your first stop, with information on key attractions in east Belfast.

THE SHANKILL
Straddling North and West Belfast, the Shankill is home to a wide collection of painted murals depicting the social and political history of the area. Places of interest include the Peace Wall, the Old Shankill Graveyard, dating back to the 14th century, the Shankill Memorial Park and the ancient Bullaun Stone. Spend just a few minutes in Belfast and you’ll notice the walls - there is street art everywhere. In the past this would have reflected the divisions in the city, but in recent years, it has been positive and transformative. Street artists from across the globe have joined a new generation of Belfast based street artists to leave their mark and to help form a new narrative for the city.
The charming and historic Cathedral Quarter has the highest concentration of street art in Belfast. Some of the most iconic pieces of local street art include ‘Blurry Eyed’ on Talbot Street, ‘Belfast Romances’ on Victoria Street, ‘The Chef’ on High Street, ‘Forzan’ on Gresham Street, ‘Pandora’s Jar’ on Donegall Street and ‘The Duel of Belfast, Dance By Candlelight’ on Hill Street.

Belfast’s answer to Portugal’s Umbrella Sky Project can be found just off Commercial Court, facing the Duke of York Pub, but this hidden entry is much more than a few umbrellas in the sky. Stand beneath these vibrant yellow brollies and look around you and you will see caricatures of some of Belfast’s most famous faces.

You can delve into this colourful and often hidden world with the Google Map Street Art Guide which is a great way of enjoying these wonderful art pieces at your own pace, or you can take the Belfast Street Art Walking Tour to gain an entertaining insider’s view to the art, the artists, the process, and the political and cultural history of the area.

To celebrate 10 years of filming in Northern Ireland, stained glass windows depicting some of the most iconic scenes from Game of Thrones were installed, dotted throughout Belfast city centre and Titanic Quarter. Each window represents the trials and tribulations of a different house and at the final window you can pretend to be the ruler of the Seven Kingdoms, by taking your seat on a version of the throne.

1. Waterfront Hall
Stroll to the first window at Waterfront Hall, where you can see the gruesome trials and triumphs of House Lannister. The explosion at the Sept, Tywin’s assassination and Oberyn Martell’s brutal death at the hands of the Mountain all make an appearance.

2. Lagan Weir
The second window sits at the Lagan Weir footbridge. Featuring a striking portrait of the Red Woman, Gendry’s war hammer and a shadow assassin, it depicts some of House Baratheon’s most iconic moments.

3. Odyssey Point
Cross the River Lagan to Odyssey Point next to SSE Arena, where you’ll find a window dedicated to House Targaryen. As well as an epic picture of Daenerys riding a fire-breathing dragon, it includes Viserys’ unforgettable death by molten gold.

4. SS Nomadic
You’ll find the most chilling installation at SS Nomadic. This White Walker themed window features some hair-raising scenes from beyond The Wall, including Hodor’s death, the advance of the dead on a partially frozen lake and the Night King riding a fiery, dead dragon.

5. Titanic Slipways
Located on the Titanic Slipways next to Titanic Studios the sixth window is a fitting tribute to the Iron Throne. It features a built-in stool so you can get a selfie on seat the throne, overlooking the very studios that brought Game of Thrones® to life!

Please note window one, Stark Window, has been temporarily removed, so start your Glass of Thrones trail at Waterfront Hall.

MARITIME MILE

SINCLAIR SEAMEN’S CHURCH
Built by Charles Lanyon in 1857–58 to meet the spiritual needs of visiting sailors, this part church, part maritime museum has a pulpit shaped like a ship’s prow, a brass ship’s wheel and binnacle (used as a baptismal font) salvaged from a WWI wreck and the ship’s bell from HMS Hood.

BELFAST HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS
This stunning building dates back to 1847, and you can visit an exhibition in the Heritage Room which celebrates 400 years of Belfast’s maritime history, detailing Belfast’s emergence as a major port and the city’s subsequent growth and development as an industrial hub.

CLARENDON DOCK & CITY QUAYS
The dry docks where Belfast’s shipbuilding industry was born date back to 1800-1826. Both docks were used to work on ships’ hulls and the workshop was designed for working on the rigging of sailing ships. The area has now been transformed into the City Quays development, home to a mix of commercial offices, shops, cafes, restaurants as well as the AC Hotel by Marriott Belfast.

THE BIG FISH
The beautiful blue scales on the Salmon of Knowledge (affectionately known as The Big Fish) are made up of ceramic tiles depicting scenes from the city’s history. Legend has it that if you kiss the fish you’ll gain all of its wisdom!

LAGAN WEIR
A wide, modern foot and cycle bridge connecting the city centre with Titanic Quarter. Beautifully illuminated in the evening, take a seat and enjoy the views of the city from the River Lagan.

GLASS OF THRONES
You’ll find 3 of the 6 Game of Thrones stained glass windows in Titanic Quarter, located at the Odyssey Point, SS Nomadic and on the Titanic Slipways. Created for the final season of the show, each one represents a different house or legacy.

THE BELFAST BUOYS
The three buoys are estimated to be around 80 years old, and would have been used by mariners to find a safe channel to and from port. Recently restored to their original colours, they have been installed as a permanent display at Abercorn Basin.

SS NOMADIC
The last remaining White Star Line vessel, SS Nomadic, has been restored to her original glory and is back home in the historic Hamilton Dock, near Titanic Belfast. Come on board and experience over 100 years of authentic maritime and social history.
The Maritime Mile begins on the city side of the river, linking Belfast’s historic Sailortown across to Titanic Quarter. Take a stroll to explore this historic area and discover the rich history and tradition of the city’s shipbuilding heritage.

TITANIC BELFAST
One of the world’s leading visitor attractions is housed in an iconic six-floor building. With nine interpretive and interactive galleries that explore the sights, sounds, smells and stories of Titanic, as well as the city and people which made her, Titanic Belfast is an unmissable experience.

TITANIC HOTEL BELFAST
The original red brick building is a truly authentic part of Titanic’s story. Harland and Wolff had two main drawing offices within the building, where naval architects, marine engineers and draftsmen were responsible for the design of the ships. This historic building has been transformed into the Titanic Hotel, preserving its place in Belfast’s maritime heritage.

TITANIC & OLYMPIC SLIPWAYS
Behind Titanic Belfast you’ll find the historic slipways where these famous ships were built and launched over a hundred years ago. Containing many original features, a Memorial Garden illustrates the proportion of Titanic’s victims and survivors from each of the passenger classes and crew. The outline of the sister ships illuminate at night and are the perfect space to reflect.

THE GREAT LIGHT
This former lighthouse optic is a unique heritage object with significance to Belfast’s economic industrial maritime past. Originally serving both Mew and Tory Island lighthouses, the optic is the largest of its kind ever constructed and dates back to 1887. It is lit all year round and has amazing views over Belfast Harbour and Lough.

TITANIC DOCK & PUMP-HOUSE
Discover the story behind Belfast’s maritime magic by taking a tour at the site of the Thompson Dry-Dock and Pump-House. See the ship’s physical footprint in history, descend 44 feet to the bottom of the dock where Titanic last sat on dry ground and learn about Belfast’s shipbuilding legacy in the visitor centre.
